FOREWORD

It is with gratitude to God that I welcome you to this edition of the NEMA Prayer Alert. As we journey through the final months of the year and enter a new one, we are reminded that the work of missions is sustained not by human strength or strategy alone, but by the grace of God and the faithful prayers of His people.

Prayer remains central to the fulfilment of the Great Commission. This edition of the Prayer Alert comes at an important time for the Nigerian Missions Movement. We are grateful for the growth and contributions of our member organisations, the commitment of missionaries serving within and beyond our borders, and the many churches and individuals who continue to give themselves to the work of the Gospel. We also recognise the importance of strengthening collaboration, developing mission leaders and responding faithfully to the changing realities of our mission fields.

As we look ahead, we are particularly mindful of NEMA's four core emphases: Vision 5015+, Countdown to 30, Urban Missions and Missions to Europe. These initiatives are our shared commitment to mobilising the Church and engaging the peoples and places that still await the witness of the Gospel. They call for our prayers, participation and sustained commitment.

The coming months also present significant opportunities and responsibilities for the Church in Nigeria. As our nation prepares for another electoral season, we must continue to pray for peace, wisdom and responsible leadership.

I encourage every reader to use this Prayer Alert not merely as a daily reading resource, but as a guide to intentional and consistent intercession. Whether you are praying alone, with your family, in your church, organisation or as part of a mission community, may these prayer points deepen your burden for the harvest and strengthen your commitment to God's mission.

As we approach a new year, may the Lord renew our strength, clarify our vision and deepen our dependence on Him. May our prayers be accompanied by faithful obedience, generous partnership and a willingness to go wherever He leads.

Thank you for standing with us in prayer. May the Lord of the harvest answer our prayers and receive all the glory as His Gospel advances among the nations.

PRAYER ALERT

OCTOBER, 2026 - JANUARY, 2027

Thursday, October 1

NIGERIA AT 66

As Nigeria marks another year of independence, let us thank God for His mercy and faithfulness over the nation. Ask the Lord to raise and preserve leaders who fear Him, uphold justice and integrity, and genuinely seek the good of the people.

Friday, October 2

Many communities continue to live with the effects of violence, insecurity and displacement. Pray specifically for communities caught in cycles of conflict, asking the Lord to bring lasting peace and protect those whose lives and livelihoods have been disrupted.

Saturday, October 3

The future of the Church and the missions' community is being formed in the lives of today's young people. Pray that the Lord will raise a generation that knows Christ, understands His call and is willing to live for His purposes. Let there be an emergence of godly parents, teachers, mentors, pastors, missionaries who will intentionally disciple them in the ways of Christ.

Sunday, October 4

The Great Commission belongs to the whole Church, not only to those who carry the title of missionary. Ask the Lord to awaken Nigerian churches to their missionary identity, so that prayer, giving, sending, discipling and going become normal expressions of church life.

Monday, October 5

World Teachers' Day

Teachers and Christian educators influence lives in classrooms, lecture halls and other learning spaces every day. Receive wisdom and grace for those seeking to honour Christ in this profession. Pray that Christian teachers will recognise their academic communities as mission fields, and minister with grace. Ask God to use their influence to shape lives for His Kingdom.

Tuesday, October 6

Poverty, hunger, displacement and other forms of vulnerability create deep needs in many communities. Ask God to strengthen churches and mission organisations serving among such communities and provide the resources needed to respond with both practical compassion and the hope of the Gospel.

Wednesday, October 7

Count Down to 30 (CT30) is an initiative to prayerfully and practically engage some of Nigeria's remaining unreached and least evangelised people groups. Bible Translation and Scripture Engagement

As part of its strategic focus, NEMA facilitates Bible translation efforts among unreached and least-evangelised tribes in Nigeria, recognizing that access to the Scriptures in one's heart language plays a vital role in reaching the unreached and ensuring the continuous discipleship of believers. Beyond translation, we also promote Scripture engagement, helping communities interact meaningfully with God's Word in ways that lead to understanding, transformation, and obedience.

Is your ministry/church engaging any people group without the Scriptures in their mother tongue? Do well to notify us via +2348032864360, +2348134918599 or btd@nemanigeriamissions.org.

CHURCH/MISSIONS ADMINISTRATORS' TRAINING WORKSHOP

The Church/Missions Administrators Seminar is a 4-day seminar for Missions Administrators, Missions Accountants, Church Administrators and all those involved in facilitating the Missions enterprise to refresh and equip them with cutting-edge skills to excel in their roles to lubricate the engine of Mission work for effective output. The workshop typically covers a wide range of topics related to administrative management, including communication and interpersonal skills, organisational planning and strategy, financial management, human resources management, project management, and performance evaluation. Participants may also receive training on specialised software and technology tools commonly used in administration. It also creates a network and forum for the cross-pollination of ideas among church and mission administrators in Nigeria.

TIMOTHY LEADERSHIP TRAINING-TLT

Equipping local leaders for mission is one of the ways NEMA works to spread the gospel throughout the world. Timothy Leadership Training has equipped thousands of local pastors and lay leaders, and the Holy Spirit has worked powerfully through these leaders to transform the lives of individuals and entire communities! Leaders who participate in Timothy Leadership Training are always excited to put what they learn into practice—and because of that, people have come to know Christ, churches have grown to be stronger and more sustainable, and entire communities benefit from development projects. Timothy Leadership Training is a curriculum of our partner and NEMA facilitate the seven modules in two contacts trainings with local pastors and lay leaders.

CONSULTATION

NEMA holds periodic consultations that center on strategic issues and engagements. Such consultations usually involve bringing together stakeholders to converse, strategise, commit and send forth to engage a focus/foci. These range from concentration on priority unreached people groups, peculiar development in mission, mission leadership, envisioning etc.

GLOBAL IMPACT TRAVAIL (GIT)

Global Impact Travail (GIT) is a dedicated intercessory platform that recognizes the vital role of effectual prayer in the Church's mission to a lost world. Rooted in a passion to see labourers thrust into unengaged harvest fields and aligned with God's global purpose to extend the blessings of the Gospel to the remaining unreached families of the earth, GIT is committed to standing in the gap for the nations.

We meet in person every third Thursday of the month, from 4:00 PM to 5:30 PM, at NEMA Headquarters, 91 Rayfield Road, Jos. These sessions are also streamed live on Zoom and across our social media platforms to enable global participation.

Join us as we travail in prayer until the nations are birthed into worship before the Lamb.

TENT-MAKING TRAINING
