FOREWORD

Dear Beloved in Christ,

As we approach the much-anticipated Field Missionary Retreat (FMR) 2024, themed “Jesus, the Model,” we are reminded of the profound importance of prayer in our mission work. This retreat, held once every five years, is a sacred time for reflection, renewal, and recommitment to our calling.

The next four months will be dedicated to fervent prayer, not only for the retreat itself but also for the tireless efforts of our missionaries who labour in challenging environments. We will also focus our prayers on the unreached people groups, the church and the completion of the Great Commission, as commanded by our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Bible teaches us the power and necessity of prayer in our mission. In 1 Thessalonians 5:17, we are exhorted to “pray without ceasing,” reminding us that continuous prayer is vital for the success of our mission endeavours. James 5:16 also emphasizes the power of prayer, stating, “The prayer of a righteous person has great power as it is working.”

Furthermore, our fathers in the faith have also emphasized the indispensable role of prayer in missions. Hudson Taylor, the founder of the China Inland Mission, once said, “The power of prayer has never been tried to its full capacity. If we want to see mighty wonders of divine power and grace wrought in the place of weakness, failure, and disappointment, let us answer God's standing challenge, 'Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and show thee great and mighty things which thou knowest not.'” (Jeremiah 33:3).

As we prepare for the Field Missionary Retreat 2024, let us be united in prayer, seeking God's guidance, strength, and provision. The Apostle

Paul, in his letters, often requested prayers for boldness and clarity in proclaiming the gospel (Ephesians 6:19-20). Let us pray for our missionaries, that they may be encouraged and empowered by the Holy Spirit. Let us intercede for the unreached people groups, that they may come to know the saving grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. And let us commit ourselves to the completion of the Great Commission, trusting in God's promise that His word will not return void (Isaiah 55:11).

May the Lord bless and keep you as you join us in this season of prayer.
In His Service,

Andrew Gwaivangmin

Executive Secretary,

Nigeria Evangelical Missions Association (NEMA)
